

ZsONA MACO 2016 ANNOUNCES PARTICIPATING GALLERIES
NOVEMBER 30TH, 2015

The art fair will present 122 galleries from 24 countries:

Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, Chile, China, Colombia, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Guatemala, Iceland, Israel, Italy, Luxembourg, Mexico, Panama, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States and Venezuela.

After breaking attendance records in 2015, ZsONA MACO, Latin America's most important art fair announces details for its thirteenth edition, to be held from February 3rd to 7th, 2015 at Centro Banamex, Hall D, in Mexico City.

As every year, the fair will feature five sections: General Section, New Proposals, ZsONA MACO Sur, Modern Art and ZsONA MACO Design, gathering together international curators, artists, gallery owners and collectors in one of the world's leading art events.

For the first time, NEW PROPOSALS is curated by Humberto Moro (Guadalajara, 1982). The section will exhibit 22 galleries and an independent space, focused on potentializing the multiple achievements of a new experience through three selection criteria:

- Appealing to the condition of discovery with original artworks made specifically for the event.
- Under a geographic parameter with works of artists that have not been exhibited in the city.
- With artworks that through their formal or discursive characteristics represent an innovative way to the themes they approach.

For the second consecutive year, João Mourão (Alegrete, Portugal, 1975) and Luis Silva (Lisbon, Portugal, 1978), co-directors at the Kunsthalle Lissabon (Lisbon), curate ZsONA MACO SUR. With a selection of 20 projects, Case study #2: Rythm is a Dancer continues the theoretical framework proposed in 2015 edition: Case Study #1 -

Laplace's Demon, which allowed attendees to know the past in order to predict what will occur in the future art scene .

Case study #2: *Rythm is a Dancer proposes a more performative approach to the curatorial exercise, guided by keywords such as rhythm, form, abstraction, music, geometry, dance, performance, movement, the 90's, modernism, irony, sexy and eyecandy.

For its fourth edition, MODERN ART exhibits 17 international galleries with artworks produced during the first half of the 20th century, this time selected by a committee headed by Alejandra Yturbe (GAM, Mexico City), Mariana Pérez Amor (GAM, Mexico City) and Enrique Guerrero (Galería Enrique Guerrero, Mexico City).

For the third time Cecilia León de la Barra (Mexico City, 1975) is in charge of ZsONA MACO DESIGN. Throughout 25 exhibitors, the section will have an independent pavilion that will display the result of the exploration exercise initiated by the curator and the fair since 2014, which brings together limited edition objects and design of national and internacional studios, combining the latest trends with vintage design galleries.

In 2016 the GENERAL SECTION displays a total of 73 galleries with artists of international relevance, under the selection of a committee held by Stefania Bortolami (Bortolami Gallery, New York), Ben Loveless (Galerie Nordenhake, Stockholm / Berlin) and Patricia Ortiz Monasterio (Galería OMR, Mexico City)

ZsONA MACO 2016 will turn Mexico City into the largest meeting point of the most important national and international collectors of contemporary and modern art and design objects; with a program of parallel activities, a series of lectures and the most important exhibition ground in Latin America divided into five sections, with restaurants and rest areas for visitors.

Event open to the general public.

ABOUT ZsONA MACO

Established in 2003 by Zélika García, Zsona MACO is currently one of the leading art fairs that takes place every year during February at Centro Banamex in Mexico City.

In addition to the contemporary art fair, Zélika García established ZsONA MACO SALÓN DEL ANTICUARIO in 2014 and ZsONA MACO FOTO in 2015, with the spirit to promote, disseminate and bring antiques, photography and video art closer to the general public, as well as collectors.
